Seal of Biliteracy Application

The Seal of Biliteracy is a physical seal appearing on the diploma and official high school transcript. This special seal is granted to students who meet grade, score, enrollment, and other performance requirements in English and one (1) or more World Languages other than English. Providence Public School District hopes to encourage all students to improve English proficiency, maintain and grow in languages they already know, or learn new languages in which they are interested. See the Seal of Biliteracy flyer for more information.
