Addendum #1

Social Studies Instructional Materials and Curricular Resources (SY23)

Issue Date: Wednesday, November 24, 2021

Bids Due: Wednesday, December 8, 2021

1. We wanted to know if we could write only for the middle school grades? We don't have an elementary or high school curricula, but feel our work is well aligned for what Providence is looking for with our Middle School work.

Yes, you can write a single level bid

2. Most of the RFP is written for Social Studies materials. However, there is also a bullet point about aligning to the district's ELA materials. Will products for both ELA and Social Studies be evaluated, or is the district solely looking for Social Studies materials?

We will be reviewing for Social Studies, but with our need and emphasis on Reading and Literacy aligning to those standards is encouraged.
