Notice to Vendors General Terms

1. Providence Public Schools reserves the right to award the contract on the basis of the lowest responsible evaluated bid proposal.
2. In determining the lowest responsive evaluated bid proposal, cash discounts based on preferable payment terms will not be considered.
3. No proposal will be accepted if it is made in collusion with any other bidder.
4. Providence Public Schools reserves the right to award to a single vendor, to split the award between multiple vendors and to reject any and all proposals. Unless otherwise specified, Providence Public Schools reserves the right to make the award by item or items or by total as may be in its best interest.
5. As Providence Public Schools is exempt from the payment of Federal Excise Taxes and Rhode Island Sales Tax, prices quoted are not to include these taxes.
6. In case of error in the extension of prices quoted, the unit price will govern. In the event there is a discrepancy between the price written in words and written in figures, the prices written in words shall govern.
7. Awards shall be subject to the General Terms set forth herein, which terms shall be deemed accepted by the Bidder upon submission of the bid proposal, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, and shall be further deemed to be incorporated into the contract upon issuance of the award. Any proposed exceptions, modifications, or deviations from the terms, conditions, and specifications contained herein must be listed and fully explained on a separate sheet attached to the Bidder's detailed conditions and specifications and referred to separately in the Bids. Such proposed exceptions, modifications, or deviations shall be an additional variable for consideration by the Providence Public School District in addition to vendor qualifications, price, quantity, and/or scope of services. In all cases not indicated by Bidders as an exception, modification, or deviation, it is understood that the terms, conditions and specifications of the Providence Public School District shall apply. No exception, modification, or deviation shall be deemed accepted, approved, or otherwise incorporated into the contract unless expressly set forth in the award notice.
8. Proposals must meet the attached specifications. Bids may be submitted on an "equal in quality" basis. Providence Public Schools reserves the right to decide equality and determine whether bids are responsive. Bidders must indicate brand or make offered and submit detailed specifications if other than brand requested.
9. A bidder who is an out of-state corporation shall qualify or register to transact business in this State, in accordance with R.I. General Law Section 7-1.2-1401 et seq. as amended)
10. Delivery dates must be shown in the bid. If no delivery dates are specified, it will be assumed that an immediate delivery from stock will be made.

11. Only one shipping charge will be applied in the event of partial deliveries for blanket or term contracts.
12. For contracts involving construction, alteration and/or repair work, the provisions of State Labor Law concerning payment of prevailing wage rates apply (See R.I. General Law Section 37-13-1 et seq. as amended).
13. All proposals will be disclosed at the opening date and time listed above. After a reasonable lapse of time, tabulation of proposals may be viewed on the Providence Public School's website (<https://www.providenceschools.org/Page/4634>).
14. Awards will be made within ninety (90) days of the proposal opening. All proposal prices will be considered firm, unless qualified otherwise. Requests for price increases will not be honored.
15. No goods should be delivered and no work should be started without a Purchase Order from Providence Public Schools.
16. Prior to commencing performance under the contract, the successful bidder (the "Contractor") shall attest to compliance with provisions of R.I. General Law Section 28-29-1, et seq. If exempt from compliance, the Contractor shall submit a sworn Affidavit by a corporate officer to that effect, which shall accompany the signed contract.
17. Prior to commencing performance under the contract, Contractor shall, submit a certificate of insurance, in a form and in an amount satisfactory to Providence Public Schools.
18. The Contractor will not be permitted to: assign or underlet the contract; or assign either legally or equitably any monies or any claim thereto without the previous written consent of the Director of Purchasing.
19. The Contractor shall not be paid in advance.
20. The contract shall be in effect from the date of award through June 30, 2022 or for such other duration as may be agreed to in writing and signed by the parties, unless terminated by either party at any time, with or without cause.
21. In the event of termination by District or the Contractor prior to completion of the contract, compensation shall be prorated on the basis of hours actually worked, and the Contractor shall only be entitled to receive just and equitable compensation for any satisfactory work completed and expenses incurred up to the date of termination.
22. Failure to deliver within the time quoted or failure to meet specifications may result in default in accordance with the general specifications.
23. The Contractor must conduct a criminal background check, at the Contractor's expense, of all employees employed under the contract who interact with students, except District employees.

The Contractor shall provide a copy of the background check report(s) to the District, upon request.

24. The Contractor is not an employee of District and is not entitled to fringe benefits, pension, workers' compensation, retirement, etc. District shall not deduct Federal income taxes, FICA (Social Security), or any other taxes required to be deducted by an employer, as this is the responsibility of the Contractor.
25. The Contractor understands products produced as a result of the contract are the sole property of the District and may not be used by the Contractor without the express written permission of the District.
26. The Contractor agrees to hold District and the City of Providence harmless from any and all damages incurred by District or the City by reason of the Contractor's negligence or breach of contract, including without limitation, damages of every kind and nature, out-of-pocket costs, and legal expenses.
27. The contract may not be modified or amended in any way except by mutual agreement in writing and signed by each party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to the provision concerning exceptions, modifications, or deviations set forth in Paragraph 7 hereinabove, the General Terms shall not be modified or amended in any way by subsequent agreement. In the event of a conflict between the General Terms and any subsequent modification or amendment to the contract, the General Terms shall control.
28. The Contractor expressly submits itself to and agrees that all actions arising out of or related to the contract or the relationship between the parties shall occur solely in the venue and jurisdiction of the State of Rhode Island.

Title

Providence Public School District

Request for Proposals

Teacher Induction Professional Development

2021-2022

Funding Source (Contingent on Funding): Local

I. Background

The Providence Public School Department (PPSD) is soliciting proposals for new teacher induction programs that are grounded in culturally responsive teaching practices, offer synchronous and asynchronous professional learning opportunities and offer formative assessment of teaching practices.

Providence Public Schools serves approximately 24,000 students across 41 schools. Our schools are diverse communities of learners. Approximately 68% of our students are Latinx, 15% Black, 6.5% White, 4% Asian, 5.5% multi-racial and 1% Native American. 33% of the student population are multilingual learners. Of PPSD, 2,000 are classroom educators. For SY 20-21, PPSD hired 150 new teachers. The range of experiences of new teachers is broad; some are novice teachers and others are experienced teachers who are new to PPSD. A large percentage of our novice teachers teach under emergency certificates.

Currently, PPSD is under the stewardship of the Rhode Island Department of Education (RIDE). As part of its Turnaround Action Plan, PPSD aspires to staff its schools with World-Class Talent. This will be accomplished by recruiting and retaining teachers who have the pedagogical, content and professional knowledge to educate our students. PPSD seeks a program that can offer targeted and differentiated support and professional learning to our new teachers.

II. Required Qualifications

PPSD requires a vendor to meet the qualifications and specifications listed below:

- has experience working with urban districts
- has expertise in grounding educator professional development in Culturally Responsive Practices
- has experience offering synchronous and asynchronous teacher professional development
- has the capacity to offer high quality, engaging professional development virtually to groups of 50 people
- has the capacity to offer multiple sessions of the same course based upon enrollment needs
- has experience tailoring professional development to local conditions and contexts
- has experience offering high-leverage, researched-based instructional practices

III. Scope of Work

- a. Provide multiple synchronous sessions for a Summer Induction Institute (end of July through mid-August) for novice teachers and new to Providence teachers that address the following topics: Culturally Responsive Teaching, Establishing Classroom Culture, Standards-Based Instruction and Lesson Planning, Leveraging Instructional Technology
- b. Provide a series of monthly professional development (some months synchronous, other months asynchronous), September through May, on the following topics: unit/lesson planning, student work and data analysis, formative assessment strategies, providing

- feedback and content-specific instructional strategies that are grounded in Culturally Responsive Teaching practices
- c. Provide a personalized portal to house the professional development session, including a copy of resources and materials, a recording of each session, and a link to feedback surveys.
 - d. Provide teacher feedback and next steps with administration after the Summer Institute, mid-year and end-of-year implementation meetings

IV. Timeline for Implementation

The contract will begin upon award and conclude June 30, 2022.

The contract resulting from this solicitation will be for a one-year term with two option years.

Year 1: Upon Award to June 30, 2022

Option Year 1: July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2023

Option Year 2: July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024

V. Limitations

This Request for Proposals (RFP) does not commit the Providence School Department to award any contract or pay for the preparation of any proposal submitted in response to this RFP. The Providence School Department may withdraw or amend this RFP in its entirety or in part, at any time if it is in the best interests of the organization to do so. This award is contingent upon the receipt of funding.

VI. Proposal Requirements

Bids must be submitted in accordance with the instructions outlined on page 1 of this document. Electronic submissions will not be accepted.

To achieve a uniform review process and obtain the maximum degree of comparability, it is required that proposals be organized in the manner specified

The proposal shall be submitted in a binder with the tabs as set forth below:

Tab 1 - Table of Contents

- Clearly identify the materials by section and page number

Tab 2 - Profile of the Proposer and Products and Services Offered

- Vendor's qualifications and experience providing training,
- Proven track record and/or research related to the effectiveness of its training
- Testimonials from other districts supported
- Description of pedagogical philosophy and approach

Tab 3 - Sample Materials

- Timeline for implementation and training
- Sample training for teachers and administrators

Tab 4 - Pricing Proposal

- Any and all pricing information, including any alternative pricing proposals that may be acceptable for individual components and/or supplemental products/services that meet all or some of the criteria listed in this RFP.
- Provide a detailed narrative of the implementation schedule and pricing.
- District may request pricing to be submitted electronically at a future date

VII. Questions

Questions concerning this solicitation should be emailed to Jennifer Copeland at jennifer.copeland@ppsd.org. Questions are due by Wednesday, June 16, 2021 at 4:30PM. Questions will be answered via addendum.

VIII. Evaluation of Proposals

Each vendor proposal will be reviewed and scored against the criteria in the table below. A review committee with at least three members will evaluate the proposals. Each member of the committee will conduct a thorough, independent evaluation of each proposal. The committee will then meet for a discussion after which members will have the option to revise their scores. The technical score will be determined by averaging each member's score in each category.

The maximum number of points scored is 100. The threshold to advance to cost proposal review is 75 points. Proposals scoring below 75 points will be deemed technically unacceptable and will not be considered in the cost proposal review.

The award will then be made to the lowest cost, technically acceptable proposal(s).

Vendor Name
Technical Proposal Category	Score
Executive Summary (0 - 10 points)
Previous Experience and Background (0 - 10 points)
Capability, Capacity, Staffing and Qualifications of the Vendor (0 - 40 points)
Work Plan/Approach Proposed (0-40 points)
Total Score

Providence Public Schools may choose to seek clarifications from vendors with regard to their proposals. All responses will be provided in writing, and incomplete and/or unclear responses may result in a proposal being deemed technically unacceptable. Providence Public Schools reserves the right to make a selection without requesting clarification. Additionally, Providence Public Schools may not necessarily seek clarifications from all vendors submitting proposals.
