VERBAL AND NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION

- 1 Language/communication varies by context. What might be acceptable and expected in one setting may not be appropriate in another
- 2 Understand that how you communicate with your friends may not be how you communicate with an employer
- 3 Be mindful of verbal language (what you say and how you say it, i.e., tone of voice)
- 4 Be mindful of non-verbal language (facial expressions, behavior, body language, ect)
- 5 Do shake hands when meeting with professionals, rather than offering a high-five or a hug

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

- 1 Use proper email etiquette when communicating with employers
- 2 Avoid using inappropriate email addresses such as hotfoxychick@xyz.net. Use emails with a combination of your first and last name
- 3 Include a subject line that helps the reader know what your message is about
- 4 Include a greeting (Dear...) and a closing (Sincerely,)

- 7 Do not use jokes or sarcasm. This may not translate well in an email since the reader decides the tone
- 8 Keep the communication short and to the point
- 9 Do not use emoticons (=). Emoticons are not considered professional
- 10 Reread before hitting "send". Once you hit "send," there is no turning back
