Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child is invited to participate in the Providence Summer Learning Program. This program will expand your student’s education through literacy, English language acquisition, mathematics, STEM Project-Based Learning and arts integration / enrichment courses. The K - 8 model will be delivered in person at selected elementary and middle schools. The hands-on classes enable students to learn with grade-level peers in an engaging and exciting setting! Students will receive breakfast, lunch, and transportation.

Summer Learning 2022: Grades K - 8
Dates: July 5 through July 29, 2022
Hours: Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

To participate in the Summer Learning Program, please complete the attached application and return no later than Monday, May 9, 2022 to your child’s teacher.

Program Cost: It is free! Breakfast and Lunch will be provided
Program Days: Monday - Friday
Program Dates: July 5 - July 29
Program Hours: 8:30 am - 3:00 pm
Program Locations: Anthony Carnevale Elementary, Leviton Dual Language School, Young & Woods Elementary, Nathan Bishop Middle School, and Governor Christopher DelSesto Middle School

Parents / Guardians are advised to carefully read and complete the application form. The following criteria must be met during each session they are invited:

- The student will be in regular attendance every day unless a request from the parents has been made to the teacher and approval has been granted. If a student is absent because of illness, a parent note will be required.

- The student will be assigned to one of the locations listed above, these locations are subject to change. Transportation is available for elementary students if the location is more than 1 mile from the home address or more than 1.5 miles for middle school students.

- We will need a completed Summer Learning Program registration form that includes an address where the student will be during the summer months in order to assign transportation.

- Student Pick-Up: For students being picked up, they will be picked up by the parent (s) or authorized person promptly at 3:00 PM.

If you have questions, please contact [name, title].

Sincerely,

Principal
